

Welcome to the School of Operations

The Walgreens School of Operations is a career development program designed to advance your knowledge in the operational issues that matter most in your day-to-day work. Through this program you will develop the skills you need to become an effective leader, make pivotal decisions, and develop and empower your team as you pursue a career as a Store Manager at Walgreens.

What you need to do to complete each station

You will follow the same set of steps to complete each learning station:

 STEP 1	Complete all the required learning and practice activities. All training and directions are accessed through Percipio (accessible from the School of Operations Website).	in Percipio
 STEP 2	Schedule and conduct a 20-minute Learning Station Wrap-Up Meeting with your leader to discuss your experiences	Schedule with your leader
 STEP 3	Take and pass the Check your Knowledge station quiz (80% passing rate)	in LTMP
 STEP 4	Acknowledge the completion of all required learning and practice activities, Learning Station Wrap-Up Meeting, and the Check your Knowledge quiz	in LTMP
 STEP 5	Request approval from your leader	In LTMP

Let's get started

At this point, you and your leader have determined that you are ready to begin your work in the School of Operations. To do so, click on the icon to the right or here to access the School of Operations website and begin your training.

Note

Each station is self-guided, so how long it will take you to complete depends on you. It is meant to be customized to fit your unique pace. After completing all of your learning and practice activities for each station in Step 1, you'll advance to Step 2.
